UNIOR

Unior d.d. is a producer of Hand Tools from Slovenia since 1919, with over 2000 employees and an international network of associated companies and distributors, who are successfully representing Unior in many countries worldwide. The company is divided into main divisions forging and sinter parts, hand tools and machine building.

Advantages of our hand tools are:

High quality hand tools, made in Europe (ISO 9001 certified), awarded with European Quality Trademark with more than 86 % made in EU: <https://uniortools.com/eng/about-us/eqtm>.

Good and stable purchasing sources (Unior is a co-owner of Steel processing factory in Slovenia).

Many years of experiences through all productions processes (forging, machining, heat treating, surface protection and other).

Own development and quality department with testing facilities.

Production flexibility (complete production circle is done in-house).

Lifetime warranty for the tools.

Wide range of different tools and workshop equipment, such as standard industry tools, motorbike tools, automotive tools, bike tools, insulated tools (VDE certified up to 1000V) and other.

Fast deliveries.

We offer marketing, technical, sales and logistics support.

Unior is a global company, so we are aware that a strategic approach to sustainable development is vital, both for today and for the future.
